SSCC Newsletter 6 | September 2016

Dear all,

Welcome back! We hope that you have had a nice relaxing summer and are ready for our intensive event programme this autumn. As you can see below, we are organising many networking opportunities for you to "meet, connect and trade".

We kick off with our successful Crayfish Party followed by several events covering topics such as digitalisation, sustainability, real estate, just to mention a few. Check our website for all upcoming events!

Last but not least, save the date for the SSCC Business Forum taking place on 10 November in Zurich.

Best wishes,
Eva Fiorenzoni

Patron in the Spotlight

International Private Banking within SEB

The appeal of using an international bank has always been clear to the global investor with an international reach looking to do business around the world in the most efficient and safest way possible. We at SEB realise the opportunities globalisation in today's society provide by opening doors and possibilities for international financing.

We equally appreciate that finding such opportunities in a complex and fast-moving world can be daunting for the private investor. We are therefore determined, as your trusted private banking partner, to help you navigate through the myriad of complexities you will be faced with when moving or investing abroad.
