SSCC Newsletter | April 2019

Dear Members and Friends,

The first quarter of 2019 has already come to an end, and it has been a very intensive period for the SSCC. We kicked off the year with our signature event, the SSCC Business Forum, on the topic Artificial Intelligence. This was our 7th Business Forum and a very successful event with close to 130 delegates and 5 very competent speakers from the AI scene from both Sweden and Switzerland. Read more here.

On the 14th March we hosted our Annual General Meeting in Bern presenting the yearly review of activities as well as the financial result. In 2018 we organised 37 events all around Switzerland with attendance going up from 2017 to more than 1800 delegates attending our events. The member base is growing steadily from year to year and we now count almost 260 members and communicate with a community of over 3'000 people. Read more here.

Below in this newsletter you will find some of our new member offers exclusively for our members. They are being updated on a regular basis on our website, so make sure you visit this section from time to time.

We would like to take this opportunity to welcome our newest members. Meet them in the new members section below.

Best wishes,
SSCC Team in Zurich, Geneva and Lugano

Since 1852, Hästens has been committed to crafting the best sleep. It's during your waking hours that you will notice how well you have slept. According to Hästens, the perfect sleep is when you feel perfectly rested at 4 o' clock in the afternoon. Hästens has a rich history that runs back through six generations and started in the Swedish town Köping, where the beds still are being made. A journey filled with passion, skill and pursuit of making the best handcrafted beds in the world. The traditions are proudly carried by Hästens fifth generations owner and chairman, Jan Ryde. Today the familyowned company has expanded its markets to comprise in Europe, Asia and America.
