

BIOGRAPHY

Susanne Ackum

Susanne Ackum holds a PhD in economics from Uppsala University.

She has been the director of the Trade Union Institute for Economic Research (FIEF), director general for the Institute for Labor Market and Education Policy Evaluation (IFAU); director general for the Economics Department at the Ministry of Finance; state secretary to Finance Minister Anders Borg; and a National Auditor.

She has also been involved in building up the Swedish Research Council and has participated in a number of international committees (EU, OECD and IMF) on international economic policy issues.

She is presently chair of the Future Work Forum, board member of Digital Day in Sweden, member of the board of SEB Pension and Insurance and chairs its risk committee; and chair of the Swedish Economic Association.