

Curriculum Vitae

Marie-Gabrielle Ineichen-Fleisch, born on July 1st, 1961, in Lausanne, Switzerland, married to Mark Ineichen

Professional Experience

- April 2011 State Secretary and Director of the State Secretariat for Economic Affairs SECO, Federal Department of Economic Affairs FDEA, Berne
- April 2007 – 2011 Delegate of the Federal Council for Trade Agreements, Ambassador, Swiss Chief negotiator in the WTO, Head of World Trade, Member of the Executive Board, State Secretariat for Economic Affairs SECO, Federal Department of Economic Affairs FDEA, Berne
- 1999 – 2007 Minister, Head of Division, WTO and Government Procurement, State Secretariat for Economic Affairs SECO, Berne
- 1995 – 1999 Head of section in WTO Division, Federal Office for Foreign Economic Affairs (BAWI), Federal Department of Economy, Berne, responsible for Government Procurement, dispute settlement and countries of former Soviet Union
- 1992 – 1993 Executive Director's Assistant of the Swiss Executive Director, World Bank, Washington, D.C.
- 1990 – 1995 Legal advisor, Legal Service and Investment Division, BAWI, Berne

Education

- 1989 M.B.A. INSEAD, Fontainebleau, France
- 1988 Junior Consultant, Mc Kinsey & Co. Zurich, Switzerland
- 1980 – 1987 Law studies, University of Berne, concluded as Attorney-at-law (Fürsprecher)

Further activities

Three times Member of a WTO-Panel: dispute between the US and South Korea regarding Government Procurement (1999); dispute between the EC and the US regarding subsidies (2003); dispute between the US and Turkey regarding rice import, in the latter case as Chairperson (2006)

Languages

German, French, English, Italian, Spanish, Chinese, Russian

Special interests

Languages (one year stay in China), mountain climbing, opera