Biography

Christophe Catoir

President, Adecco

Executive Committee Member, The Adecco Group

Christophe Catoir, born in France in 1972, leads Adecco as its global President since January 2021. Christophe Catoir joined The Adecco Group in France in 1995, immediately after his studies at the IESEG School of Management. Over the past 28 years, his career has progressed through various national, regional, and global positions of increasing responsibility.

Career Stations Initially internal auditor, then administrative and financial manager, Christophe was appointed Regional Director for Adecco France (Lorraine region) in 1999. In 2005, he took the responsibility of all permanent recruitment activities. He supported the launch of Experts, a brand dedicated to the recruitment of middle management executives, engineers, and technicians (since then renamed Spring), in order to reinforce the group's position on this market. In 2009, Christophe was appointed operational General Director of Adecco France (South-East region) and managed a network of 350 branches and 1300 employees. At the same time, he leads the sales and marketing activities for Adecco France. In 2012, Christophe progressed to head global professional staffing activities in France: eight brands and 3,200 employees focused on executives' recruitment, outsourcing and consulting. In September 2015, he was appointed Regional Head of France and member of the Executive Committee, The Adecco Group. In February 2019, he added Region Northern Europe to his responsibilities before moving to his current role in January 2021. Christophe is married, has 3 children and lives in Zurich (CH) with his family.
