

Ambassador Nina Tornberg is the Permanent Representative of Sweden to the WTO since 15 August 2023.

Nina is the current chair of the Working Party of the accession of Somalia to the WTO.

Before coming to Geneva, Nina worked at the Ministry for Foreign Affairs in Stockholm, as a Deputy Head of the European Correspondent Department as well as Deputy Head of the Department for International Trade Policy and EU Internal Market.

Nina started her career in the Swedish MFA in 2001 and has held different posts on foreign policy and trade policy issues, in Stockholm, at the Embassy in Oslo as well as at the Permanent Representation to the European Union in Brussels.

Nina has a Master of Laws from Uppsala University and a Master of Arts in Advanced European Legal Studies from King's College in London.

She is married with three children.